¹ Translator's note: Part of Degree refers to every of the two parts a degree in Spain used to be divided of before the Bologna Agreement (1st Part: the first two/three years; 2nd Part: the last two years of the degree).

² In most Spanish universities the grading system is as follows: 0-4,9 Suspenso (Fail), 5-6,9 Aprobado, 7-8,9 Notable, 9-9,9 Sobresaliente and 10 Matrícula de Honor (First Class Honours). However, this grading system may vary from university to university or from lecturer to lecturer, as is the case in this document. The Sworn Translator doesn't have the authority to set up conversions between marks from different grading systems.
